THE FUTURE NEEDS AN ADVOCATE

Opportunities for young adults to work for peace and justice
Advocacy Corps

Young adults, 19-30 years old, will lead locally-based grassroots campaigns to influence members of Congress. Participants take part in a 10-day immersive training in community organizing, local media outreach, and lobbying. Participants commit to 25 hours per month for 9 months and receive a financial stipend.

Application Deadline: April 19, 2019
Program: August 2019-May 2020

Young Fellows Program

FCNL Young Fellows work as full-time members of FCNL for 11 months. Benefits include salary (meets DC living wage standard), health care, paid vacation, and sick leave.

Application Deadline: February 18, 2019
Program: August 2019-July 2020

Summer Internships

FCNL Summer interns are introduced to federal policy, grassroots organizing, and nonprofit management. The experience is ideal for undergraduate or college-age participants. Stipend included.

Application Deadline: March 29, 2019
Program: June-July 2019

Spring Lobby Weekend

Join FCNL for a three-day training in policy and advocacy skills followed by a lobby day on Capitol Hill.

Program: March 23-26, 2019

Questions?
Katie Breslin
Young Adult Programs Manager
Katie@fcnl.org

futureadvocate.org